

Sharyn Lynn Anderson-Campbell

is a Pastor at Salt & Light Church of God in Fowler, Kansas. She has twenty-years in the Loss Prevention field, two years as a Correctional Officer, and one year as a Police Officer, which has taught her the importance of working well with others.

A big believer in advocating for children of abuse, she supports Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA).

Her book The Cry No One Heard was published in August 2014, and has been an inspiration to survivors of abuse. Sharyn shares her personal story of childhood abuse and how she has overcome the pain thereof. She explains how prayer, forgiveness, and studying the Word of God delivered her from the bondage of anger, shame, and depression. Sharyn loves people and has a passion for those who are hurting. To God be the glory for the things he has done.
